From the Pastor

Bishop Tobin has designated the present calendar year as a Year of Our Lady in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of the apparitions at Fátima, Portugal. Here's a little bit of the entry in Wikipedia "Our Lady of Fatima:"

*In the spring and summer of 1916, nine-year-old Lúcia Santos and her cousins Jacinta and Francisco Marto were herding sheep at the Cova da Iria near their home village of Fátima, Portugal. They later said they were visited three times by an apparition of an angel. They said the angel, who identified himself as The Angel of Peace, "taught them prayers, to make sacrifices, and to spend time in adoration of the Lord.*

On 13 May 1917, the children saw a woman brighter than the sun, shedding rays of light clearer and stronger than a crystal goblet filled with the most sparkling water and pierced by the burning rays of the sun. The woman wore a white mantle edged with gold and held a rosary in her hand. She asked them to devote themselves to the Holy Trinity and to pray the Rosary every day, to bring peace to the world and an end to the [first world] war."

It is the teaching of the Church is that no apparition is a matter of "divine and Catholic faith." That is, we are not obliged to accept any of these "private revelations." Still, devotion to our Lady is part of the apostolic tradition in Catholicism and Eastern Orthodoxy as well as in some forms of Protestantism and even in Islam, and certainly the call to prayer and repentance is fundamental to the message of the gospel. Here in southern New England we also have many ties to Portugal and I am glad that the bishop has reminded us of the timely message of Fatima.

I have asked the music ministers to add an antiphon or some other composition at the end of communion time to honor our Blessed Mother. So let us raise our voices in praise of her who is "higher than the Cherubim and incomparably more glorious than the Seraphim."

STEBENVILLE EAST YOUTH CONFERENCE

Registration for the 2017 Steubenville East Youth Conference to be held on July 14-16 at the UMass, Lowell Campus will open up in mid-January. Our teens get a lot out of this weekend. Here are some of their reflections: "It was nothing like I expected. I felt so close and connected to God." "I definitely feel like a stronger Catholic and I think as many people that have the option to come should." Each year we reserve spots for our teenagers who are current 8-12th grade students. We are trying to get a feel for how many spots to reserve so if you are interested in participating, contact the Religious Education Office. At this point, you are not under any obligation to attend.

CALL BARBETTE CULLEN OR DIANE CASTRO AT 792-8684 FOR MORE INFORMATION.

The magi "prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh."—Mt 2:11

The Solemnity of the Epiphany of Our Lord celebrates the many ways that Christ has made Himself known to the world, mainly the three events that manifested the mission and divinity of Christ: the visit of the Magi (Matthew 2:1-12), the baptism of Jesus (Mark 1:9-11), and the miracle at Cana (John 2:1-11). The visit of the Magi is emphasized on Epiphany Day.

ART SHOW & PAINTING DEMONSTRATION

WHAT: Peter Spaine will display his works of art and offer guidance, tips, and a demonstration on creatively painting your own piece of art!!

WHEN: Saturday, January 14th & Saturday, January 21st from 10am-noon

WHERE: Father Greenan Center

January 14th we will enjoy Spaine's art and he will give a complimentary explanation about the process and procedure of the art. He will also share the cost if you choose to advance to the next meeting on January 21st. On January 21st we will be guided by Peter to create our own work of art by painting flowers and portraits using acrylics.

Community Home Care is looking for a live-in caregiver to work with a charming 85-year old woman who lives in in Scituate. The caregiver will need to stay at the senior's home for up to 5 nights. You do not move in with the senior. You will stay a couple of nights & then return to your own home on your days off. The senior lives in a wonderful home where you will have your own bedroom and bath. She has 2 dogs that are her pride and joy. She needs assistance with light housekeeping, meal preparation, & occasional gentle reminders for going to the bathroom, brushing teeth, & transportation. If interested contact: Patti Fish, Community Liaison Home Care Assistance of RI at (401)-284-0979 or pfish@homecareassistance.com.

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA
National Collection

The Catholic University of America is unique among universities in the United State—even among Catholic universities. Established by the Vatican and the U.S. bishops in 1887, it is the national university of the Catholic Church. It is proud to have nearly one third of the U.S. bishops as alumni, along with more than 12,400 living priests and religious from around the world. In Washington, D.C. the University provides an education based in Catholic intellectual tradition to nearly 7,000 students through its 12 schools—that include arts and sciences, music, engineering, philosophy, social work, law, and business in addition to ecclesiastical degrees in canon law and theology.

Next weekend, we will be taking up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America. Your support will enable Catholic University to expand its impact in preparing the next generation of leadership for our Church and nation. We appreciate your generosity. You can learn more at collection.cua.edu.
