FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students)

Hello everyone! My name is Eliza DeCubellis, and I am from Narragansett. I just graduated from Harvard University in May, and I've accepted a position as a full-time on-campus missionary with the organization FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) for the next two years! I'll be serving my first year at George Washington University in D.C.

FOCUS missionaries are now serving on 125 campuses in the country, and their mission is to share the joy of the Gospel with college students through Bible studies, outreach events, mission trips, one-on-one discipleship, and, above all, friendship. We seek to meet students wherever they are in their faith journey and be a witness of Christ's love as we live life with them. We aim to bring Christ outside the walls of the Church and the campus Catholic Center by meeting students where they study, hang out, and live. In this way, we invest deeply in individuals' lives to show them the life-changing beauty and meaning of a relationship with Christ and His Church.

In saying "yes" to God's call to serve as a missionary, I chose to rely entirely on His Providence through the generosity of mission partners. Specifically, I need to find 25 partners who are willing to join my monthly spiritual & financial support team by August 15th so that I may carry out my work on campus. If you are interested in hearing more about my work and potentially being a part of this mission to revolutionize our culture and transform the world for Christ, please call or text me at 401-258-5852 or email me at eliza.decubellis@focus.org and we can schedule a brief appointment. You can also visit my personal support page directly at <https://www.focus.org/missionaries/eliza-decubellis>. I would be honored to serve this mission with you. God bless!

From the Assistant Pastor

“Let no one look down on you because of your youth,” writes Saint Paul in his first letter to Timothy, “but set an example for those who believe, in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity” (1 Tim 4:12). Saint Paul’s words struck me as especially poignant two weekends ago as I joined 26 of our teens and 4 chaperones on the annual Steubenville East Conference in Lowell, MA. Aflame with the Spirit and united by the bonds of faith, our young parishioners embarked on a weekend which, for many, left them invigorated and ever-ready to proclaim the Gospel with the joy that comes from God alone.

I was especially moved by the confidence these young men and women exhibited as they shared their faith experiences with each other and bonded in deeper friendship throughout the weekend. It is no surprise that St. Thomas Aquinas called friendship “the source of the greatest pleasures.” For the Christian, friendship entails no mere social construct, but is part and parcel of why we exist. Indeed, we are made for friendship with God forever. Steubenville East captured this perennial truth by inviting our youth into a deeper relationship with Christ and with one another.

I would encourage you to read our teens’ reflections attached to this bulletin. You will find nothing less than the efficacious fruits of God’s grace working in their lives. I am most grateful to our young parishioners and to our chaperones for inspiring me at the conference and over these past couple weeks. I pray that many more young people will join us next year for a weekend of a lifetime, growing closer to the Lord who continually knocks at the door of our hearts, calling us to deeper friendship with Him.

I leave you with words from the Pope Emeritus, Benedict XVI, on the occasion of his inauguration to the Pontificate in 2005: “Are we not perhaps all afraid in some way? If we let Christ enter fully into our lives, if we open ourselves totally to him, are we not afraid that He might take something away from us? Are we not perhaps afraid to give up something significant, something unique, something that makes life so beautiful? Do we not then risk ending up diminished and deprived of our freedom? . . . No! If we let Christ into our lives, we lose nothing, nothing, absolutely nothing of what makes life free, beautiful and great. No! Only in this friendship are the doors of life opened wide. Only in this friendship is the great potential of human existence truly revealed. Only in this friendship do we experience beauty and liberation. And so, today, with great strength and great conviction, on the basis of long personal experience of life, I say to you, dear young people: Do not be afraid of Christ! He takes nothing away, and he gives you everything. When we give ourselves to him, we receive a hundredfold in return. Yes, open, open wide the doors to Christ – and you will find true life. Amen.”

God bless you. Fr. Ricci

THE PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION:

BE A WITNESS OF CHARITY
NEXT WEEKEND, AUGUST 5/6

The Peter's Pence Collection has ancient Christian roots, linking back to the New Testament times when people would provide material support to those preaching the Gospel to distribute to those in need (see Acts 4:34- 35, 11:29). Today the collection is the way we as members of the Catholic Church unite ourselves to the concerns of the Holy Father. Donations to this collection support the charitable works of Pope Francis for the assistance of those most in need.

How We Can Join Pope Francis and Be a Witness of Charity. By supporting this collection, you support the charitable works of Pope Francis. Your donations are a witness of charity and help the Holy See reach out compassionately to those who are marginalized. Contributions to this collection provide assistance to victims of natural disaster, war, oppression, and disease.

Please give generously to this collection, as a witness of charity, and give hope to those who suffer around the globe.

"A little mercy makes the world less cold and more just." —Pope Francis, Angelus, March 17, 2013

What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? Is there a right and wrong for everyone, all the time?

These are difficult questions to discuss in our culture. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality—that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. Many of us have been affected by the relativistic outlook that pervades the modern world. Maybe some of us wonder whether there really is an absolute right and wrong for everyone. Or maybe we accept that there is a moral standard for all, but we don't know how to explain our moral convictions in a convincing way. Maybe some of us are afraid of saying something is immoral because we're afraid of offending others or of being labeled intolerant. How do we talk about morality in a relativistic world? Find this on FORMED!
