From the Pastor

The new year is off and running but the Christmas season continues in the liturgy of the Church. We have celebrated the birth of the Lord, the Holy Family, Mary, the Mother of God, and this weekend we celebrate the Epiphany, the revelation of Christ to the gentiles, represented by the wise men from the East. Next Sunday, the season is brought to a climax with the Baptism of the Lord. As if the Church doesn't want to let go of the Christmas spirit, the readings continue to focus on the theme of revelation for at least one more Sunday after that and then we begin the reading of the Gospel according to Mark, which sets the tone for the Sundays in Ordinary Time until the first Sunday of Advent at the end of November.

It might be helpful to note that "Ordinary Time," the Sundays when the priest and deacon wear green vestments, is called that not because nothing special happens but because, when the Sundays of Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter have been accounted for, the rest of the weeks are simply numbered, or "ordained." Since the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at the First Christian Pentecost, there are no "ordinary times" in the usual meaning of those words. We have just begun a new "Year of the Lord." What's ordinary about that?

Peace and blessings to all in this Year of Our Lord 2015!

THE EPIPHANY

The light that shone in the night at Christmas illuminating the Bethlehem Grotto, where Mary, Joseph and the shepherds remained in silent adoration, shines out today and is manifested to all. The Epiphany is a mystery of light, symbolically suggested by the star that guided the Magi on their journey. The true source of light, however, the “sun that rises from on high” (cf. Lk 1: 78), is Christ.

In the mystery of Christmas, Christ’s light shines on the earth, spreading, as it were, in concentric circles. First of all, it shines on the Holy Family of Nazareth: the Virgin Mary and Joseph are illuminated by the divine presence of the Infant Jesus. The light of the Redeemer is then manifested to the shepherds of Bethlehem, who, informed by an Angel, hasten immediately to the grotto and find there the “sign” that had been foretold to them: the Child, wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger (cf. Lk 2: 12). The shepherds, together with Mary and Joseph, represent that “remnant of Israel”, the poor, the anawim, to whom the Good News was proclaimed. Finally, Christ’s brightness shines out, reaching the Magi who are the first-fruits of the pagan peoples.

But what is this light? Is it merely an evocative metaphor or does this image correspond to reality? The Apostle John writes in his First Letter: “God is light; in him there is no darkness” (I Jn 1: 5); and further on he adds: “God is love”. These two affirmations, taken together, help us to understand better: the light that shone forth at Christmas, which is manifested to the peoples today, is God’s love revealed in the Person of the Incarnate Word. Attracted by this light, the Magi arrived from the East.

In the liturgy of the Christmas season this verse of Psalm 98[97] frequently recurs as a refrain: “The Lord has made his salvation known: in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice” (v. 2). These are words that the Church uses to emphasize the “epiphanic” dimension of the Incarnation: the Son of God becoming human, his entry into history, is the crowning point of God’s revelation of himself to Israel and to all the peoples. In the Child of Bethlehem, God revealed himself in the humility of the “human form”, in the “form of a slave”, indeed, of one who died on a cross (cf. Phil 2: 6-8). This is the Christian paradox.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

All are invited to come to our annual St. Francis of Assisi’s Christmas Pageant this morning at 11:00AM in Fr. Greenan Parish Center. Reception to follow at 11:30am.

Family Liturgy: Mass of Listening to God’s Word

Please join us next Sunday, January 11, at the 10AM Mass in Saint Francis for our monthly Family Liturgy. We will welcome in a special way our First Communion students who will reflect during the homily on the importance of listening to God’s Word in Holy Scripture. The Church teaches that before Christ can be received in the Eucharist, he must be encountered in the Bible! God is always speaking to us, but sometimes we can’t hear him! All are welcome to this special liturgy as we hone our listening skills for God!

“2015 MARCH FOR LIFE & Diocesan Pilgrimage to DC”:

The Office of Life and Family Ministry will be sponsoring a bus trip to Washington DC for the Annual March for Life on the 42nd Anniversary of Roe v. Wade on Thursday, January 22, 2015. The cost for the overnight ride is $75.00 per person and will leave R.I. on Wednesday, January 21. This year’s trip will take us to the Verizon Center for the Youth Rally and Mass. There will be confession, Rosary, popular Catholic recording artists, presentations and a Mass for Life. For more information and to register, call Carol Owens at 421-7833 x 218.
