From Msgr. Theroux...

I had to get a final message in before I go. As I said at all the Masses last weekend, I am very grateful to many people who have been so helpful and supportive to me over the past three years. Father Joe has been an outstanding associate and friend, Deacon Iacono offers great assistance, Mimi Battey and our musicians and singers add much beauty to our worship, Bill Harding and Karen Graham are invaluable at the chapel, Barbette Cullen and Diane Castro offer dedicated service to our young people, Kelli McNulty keeps the office running smoothly with the help of Caroline Caswell, Laurie Friel manages the cemetery with care, Bobby Kelly keeps the property in shape and Ute Porcelli takes meticulous care of the rectory. Of course we have many more people, young and old, who volunteer their services in many different ways. To one and all, I am extremely grateful.

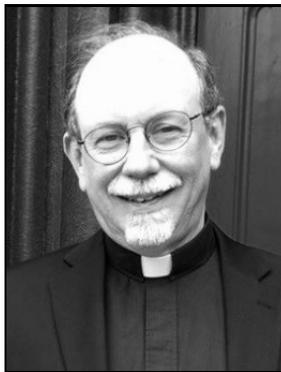

I would like to offer a special word of thanks to Jean McGair and the ladies of the parish who organized the wonderful reception after all the Masses last weekend. Likewise, thanks to Bill Harding and the ladies at St. Romuald Chapel who prepared the reception the previous weekend.

Finally, my deepest thanks to all who have expressed their good wishes to me as I prepare to move. I assure you that St. Francis Parish and St. Romuald Chapel will always have a very special place in my thoughts and prayers!

Meet Our New Pastor...

Father Henry Bodah was raised in Portsmouth, RI and attended St. Anthony's parish school. He entered Our Lady of Providence Preparatory Seminary and after graduating from the College Seminary of Our Lady of Providence, was sent by Bishop Gelineau to the American College in Leuven, Belgium, to study at the Catholic University of Louvain (KUL), from which he received his Bachelor's degree in Sacred Theology and his Master's in Religious Studies.

In 1978 he was ordained to the priesthood and assigned for two years to St. Mary's in West Warwick and then for six years to St. Paul's in Edgewood. After teaching for a year at St. Mary Academy-Bay View, he was assigned for the next six years to St. Luke's in Barrington.

In 1993, he was appointed as pastor of St. Francis of Assisi parish in the Hillsgrove section of Warwick, and after four years in that assignment was asked by Bishop Gelineau to become chaplain of the Catholic community at Brown University and the Rhode Island School of Design, a position he held for the next 17 years until being assigned to St. Francis, Wakefield in 2014.

Next weekend will be Fr. Bodah's first with us as our new pastor.

FEAST OF SS. PETER AND PAUL

June 29th marks the great solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Peter's journey was from the weakness of denial to the rock of fidelity. He gave us the ultimate witness of the cross. Paul's pilgrimage was from the blindness of persecution to the fire of proclamation. He made the Word of God come alive for the nations.

To be with Peter means to preserve the unity of the Christian Church. To speak with Paul is to proclaim the pure Word of God. Their passion was to proclaim the Gospel of Christ. Their commitment was to create a place for everyone in Christ's church. Their loyalty to Christ was valid to death. Peter and Paul are for us a strong foundation; they are pillars of our church.

Today's Gospel story [Matthew 16:13-19] is about affirmation, identity and purpose. Jesus and his disciples entered the area of Caesarea Philippi in the process of a long journey from their familiar surroundings. ... Jesus turns to his disciples and asks what people are saying about him. How do they see his work? Who is he in their minds? Probably taken aback by the question, the disciples dredge their memories for overheard remarks, snatches of shared conversation, opinions circulating in the fishing towns of the lake area. Jesus himself is aware of some of the stories about him. He knows only too well the attitude of his own town of Nazareth, and the memory probably hurts him deeply.

The disciples list a whole series of labels that people have applied to Jesus. And these names reveal the different expectations held about him. Some thought of him as fiery Elijah, working toward a real confrontation with the powers that be. Others considered him more like the long suffering Jeremiah, concentrating more on the inner journey, the private side of life. Above all, the question asked of the disciples echoes through time as the classic point of decision for every Christian.

Everyone must at some point experience what happened at Caesarea Philippi and answer Jesus' provocative question, "You, who do you say I am?" What do we perceive to be our responsibilities and commitments following upon our own declaration of faith in Jesus?

RI BLOOD CENTER THANKS OUR DONORS

Thank you for sponsoring your blood drive on June 15. Your support helped the Rhode Island Blood Center to ensure a safe and adequate blood supply to our hospitals. A total of 7 donors were able to give. Since one pint can save up to three lives, your blood drive potentially benefited up to 21 people in Rhode Island and beyond!

All blood donations will make a difference in someone's life. A significant amount of the blood collected at our blood drives will go towards treating children with leukemia, automobile accident victims and patients needing organ transplants. It is because of generous folks like yourself, who host blood drives, that we are able to give hope to patients and their families.

Please extend my thanks to everyone else that helped with the drive. It was a pleasure working with you again and I look forward to our next drive held at both St Romuald and St Francis on Sunday, August 17th from 8:45AM to 11:45AM.

Till then, take care!

Best,

Jen (Whelihan, Acct Mgr, RI Blood Center)
