From the Pastor

A couple of weeks ago I said I would give you some concrete statistics on the great Past Dinner we held here on October 23. In a nut shell: approximately 300 dinners were served; the gross income from dinners and raffles was $9,224.80; expenses were $3,856.59 (thanks to the generosity of donors); the net profit was therefore $5,368.21. Again, many, many thanks to all who labored so long and hard to make this such a success and to all who attended.

Last week you saw in the bulletin an insert from Deacon Paul and Jackie Iacono announcing that they were leaving the parish after nearly 40 years. They are building a house in Wrentham, Mass, to be closer to their children and grandchildren. I can't thank them enough for all their loyal work on behalf of this parish over the many years they lived in South Kingstown. Much of Deacon Paul's labors were behind the scenes. He ran the program of preparation for baptism for the parents of infants and performed many of the baptisms himself. He conducted the yearly RCIA process, preparing people to be received into the Catholic Church or adult Catholics for confirmation. He led the Stations of the Cross in the parish church during Lent and was always willing to give benediction of the Blessed Sacrament or go to the cemeteries for burials, especially when it would have been difficult or impossible for one of the parish priests to go. More publicly of course was his diaconal ministry on the weekends and his giving the priests a break from time to time by preaching for us. In addition, he has carried on, and will continue, the Fra Angelico Institute, introducing people to the tradition of iconography and teaching them about the artistic tradition of the Church.

Jackie has been not only a companion, assisting with pretty much all the non-diaconal ministries that Paul led here, but acting in her own right as a lector, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, and as one of "Martha's Helpers" who prepared food for various receptions held in the parish. This is to say nothing of their involvement with the public school systems in the area and their influence in the lives of so many of the youth.

Although their departure will leave a hole in our community we wish them Godspeed and many blessings as they begin a new phase of life. I know that their children and grandchildren will be blessed by their greater proximity, as will Paul and Jackie by the closeness of their family.

Please make plans to join us at a reception in their honor downstairs in Helen Bouchard Hall on Saturday, November 14, after the 4:30 Mass.

November Youth Night God is Rich in Mercy

On Sunday November 15 all middle and high school students are invited to a youth mission featuring Chris Padgett at St. Francis Xavier Parish in East Providence. As part of the Confirmation program, all candidates are required to attend. Chris has been ministering to young Catholics around the country for over a decade. Using the medium of music and message, Chris communicates the truth of God's love and forgiveness in a way that makes a difference. We will leave from the church parking lot at 4:45pm. Please have your permission slips in to the religious education office by Friday November 13th.

VOCATIONS DRAWING & ESSAY CONTEST

The Office of Vocations invites all students in grades 1-8 to submit drawings for the Vocations Drawing Contest. $50 gift cards will be awarded for outstanding entry in each grade. The drawing should reflect a priest or religious sister or brother serving others. All entries should be submitted to your Catholic school teacher, catechist, or youth group leader by December 12, 2015. Winners will be announced and prizes will be awarded in January 2016.

ALL SOULS ENVELOPES

Throughout the month of November, we pray daily for those who have gone on before us in a very special way. If you'd like to have your loved ones prayed for during the month of all souls, please list the names of your deceased loved ones on your special All Souls envelope from your budget packets and return it through the offertory or mail it into the office. You may also write their names in the Intention Book in the rear of the church by the St. Francis statue and we will pray for all of them throughout the month.

A TRULY GREAT EVENING!

On November 21st at 8pm and again on November 22nd at 3pm, the South County Chamber Singers are presenting a superb program of music at the Courthouse Center for the Arts in West Kingston under the direction of Dr. Enrico Garzilli. The program consists of music from the world of opera as well as Broadway with a terrific medley of music by The Beatles. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Come and you will have a truly great evening!

Don't miss it!

Families you are invited to come to our

SAINT PEG DOLL WORKSHOP

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14TH from 10am-12pm at Fr. Greenan Center

The peg dolls are beautiful and require limited skills. You will make a set of 10 dolls entitled "Saints That Go Together". You will purchase the template from Catholicicing.com for $5.00 and join us at Fr. Greenan on the 14th where we will supply you with the needed materials. You paint the head and decoupage the body....There will be crafts and activities for the younger children in the family to participate in. Families must register in advance by calling the Religious Ed office or by signing up at class. For more information call Barbette at the Religious Ed Office: 792-8684 or see her at Fr. Greenan during classes.

19th Annual BUY NOTHING DAY WINTER COAT EXCHANGE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27th,
10AM-12PM (Rain or Snow)
in Helen Bouchard Hall

*If you have a coat to give, please drop it off.
If you need a coat, please pick one up.*

Some see Buy Nothing Day as an escape from the marketing mind games and the frantic consumer binge that has come to characterize the holiday season. Others use it to expose the environmental and ethical consequences of over-consumption. In Rhode Island as part of International Buy Nothing Day, we hold a winter coat exchange in various locations around the state, where people who can donate coats, do so and people who need coats pick them up. Volunteers are needed to help with this life-affirming event. Contact Tom Abbott at 364-0778 or email him at dawqdays@cox.net for more information on how you can help.
