From the Pastor,

If things go according to plan, my last Mass here as pastor will be the 7 a.m. on Tuesday, June 29. Here is a piece of a reflection for that day in Magnificat magazine, taken from the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council:

The Apostolic Church

.... Just as Christ was sent by the Father, so also he sent the Apostles, filled with the Holy Spirit. This he did that, by preaching the Gospel to every creature, they might proclaim that the Son of God, by his death and Resurrection, had freed us from the power of Satan and from death, and brought us into the Kingdom of his Father. His purpose also was that they might accomplish the work of salvation which they had proclaimed, by means of sacrifice and sacraments, around which the entire liturgical life revolves. By baptism men are plunged into the Paschal Mystery of Christ: they die with him, are buried with him and rise with him; they receive the spirit of adoption as sons in which we cry: Abba, Father, and thus become true adorers whom the Father seeks. In like manner, as often as they eat the supper of the Lord they proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. For that reason, on the very day of Pentecost, when the Church appeared before the world, those who received the word of Peter were baptized. And they continued steadfastly in teaching of the Apostles and in the communion of the breaking of bread and in prayers...praising God and being in favor with all the people (Acts 2:41-47). From that time onwards the Church has never failed to come together to celebrate...the Eucharist in which the victory and triumph of his death are again made present.

Sacrosanctum Concilium

From the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Sacrosanctum Concilium, solemnly promulgated by Pope Paul VI on December 4, 1963.

Fr. Bodah

Remember to pray with your children!

Prayer for Essential Workers

Dear Mary, Our Lady of Providence, we turn to you in prayer. Fill our hearts with a grateful spirit for all essential workers, for all they have done and continue to do during this pandemic.

We offer thanks for these workers who put the welfare of others before themselves, their families and loved ones. Inspired by your own example of service, we ask that you give them the skill, resilience and compassion they need to continue their work. Protect them from harm and be their comfort. We pray for the agencies, organizations, and businesses for whom they work. May those in leadership provide these workers with the proper support and necessary protection. And through your intercession may we be moved to remember in prayer and gratitude their example of sacrificial love.

Our Lady of Providence, Pray for us.

Amen
